Due to the COVID-19 pandemic resulting in the Governor's Declaration of a State of Emergency, closure of government offices and non-essential government functions, and the need to protect the health and safety of the public and personnel—the CNMI Department of Labor, Administrative Hearing Office will be closed until further notice. The remaining hearings and deadlines scheduled for the month of March 2020 are hereby continued until further notice. The Administrative Hearing Office will continue to receive new complaints and filings electronically but processing will be delayed.

So ordered this 16th day of March, 2020.
