Party Information for Service of Process

Employers and employees are responsible for keeping contact information in the Department's records up to date and accurate. NMIAC § 80-20.1-475. When available, the Department uses compliance documents and business records to determine where service can be executed. However, said information and records are not always complete. Accordingly, after a complaint is filed, parties are requested to indicate where future service can be executed below:

1. Party's Full Name or Name of Business Establishment

2. Name of Designated Agent for Process or other Authorized Representative (if any)

3. Mailing Address in the CNMI

4. Physical Address/location (you may provide a map or drawing on the backside)

5. Preferred Telephone Number(s)

6. Preferred e-mail address for alternative service

7. Attorney Name/Office and Contact Information, if any

Please indicate:

I give consent and permission to the Department of Labor to use the above-stated contact information for all matters before the Administrative Hearing Office, until or unless otherwise notified in writing.

I give consent and permission to the Department of Labor to use the above-stated contact information for matters related to the following case number(s): _____.
